

Annual Membership Dues: $15
Please send your check made out to
"Philadelphia Archaeological Forum"
along with your name, address, email,
and phone number.

PHILADELPHIA
ARCHAEOLOGICAL FORUM (PAF)

P.O. Box 124
9 North 3rd Street
Philadelphia, PA 19106

Contact:
phillyarchaeology@gmail.com

www.phillyarchaeology.org

Images: 19th century French tobacco pipe bowl recovered during construction of the National Constitution Center; artifact processing at Independence National Historical Park; Cellar excavation, President's House Site, 2007; Native American projectile point excavated during I-95 road construction.

WWW.PHILLYARCHAEOLOGY.ORG

Web Page central for Philadelphia archaeology – research reports (1970-Present), events, online exhibits, local news and more...

Protecting and Preserving Our Archaeological Past.

PHILADELPHIA
ARCHAEOLOGICAL FORUM
(PAF)

Furthering awareness of Philadelphia's rich
archaeological heritage
through education,
advocacy, and
professional support.

Founded in 1999, the Philadelphia Archaeological Forum (PAF) is dedicated to the protection and preservation of archaeological resources in the Philadelphia region.

PAF advises agencies and the general public on matters relating to the archaeology of Philadelphia, encourages communication among professional archaeologists working in the area, and supports the publication of information relating to the archaeology of the city.

PAF membership is open to all.

PAF Actions & Activities...

- ◆ Monthly meetings and email listserv to plan activities and share current research.
- ◆ Dedicated Consulting Party on city, state, and federal development projects.
- ◆ Co-sponsor of scholarly publications.
- ◆ Co-sponsor, Explore Philadelphia's Hidden Past, annual Pennsylvania Archaeology Month celebration.
- ◆ Co-sponsor of the documentary film In The Shadow of Liberty: The Search for James Oronoko Dexter
- ◆ Co-Sponsor, 2005 Pennsylvania State Archaeology Month poster.